

Effective ERP Management

Best practices and tools for choosing an ERP system or improving satisfaction of your current ERP software!

Webinar:

ERP Selection and Improve Satisfaction

November 12 | 12:00pm-1:00pm

Zoom | Cost: $0

Learning Targets:

- Types and sources of ERP performance gaps
- Symptoms of gap-filled implementations
- Planning for an improved future-state environment
- Tools to assess fit and utilization of existing ERP systems
- Strategic and project planning for new ERP
- Future-state process design for new ERP
- Tools for defining selection/implementation requirements
- Costs to consider when purchasing new software
- Transitioning from planning/selection to implementation

About the Presenter:

Scott Holter, Consulting Services Practice Leader, Meaden & Moore

Scott has spent more than 25 years in manufacturing and technology consulting, working with manufacturers and distributors of all sizes across many industries. He has extensive experience with multiple enterprise software applications, not only assisting clients with evaluating and selecting software, but also improving the utilization of their existing software. Over the course of his career, Scott has reviewed, evaluated, and audited more than 100 different enterprise software products. He has an MBA from Case Western Reserve University and BS in Industrial Engineering from Cornell University.

Brought to you by:

More Info and Register at:

nwirc.org/events

rkeller@nwirc.org